

Thibault Newsletter ~ Spring 2017

Greetings from Kosovo! We continue to be thankful for your love and your many prayers for us. God continues to work in miraculous ways in Kosovo and we feel grateful to be a part of this work. We are thankful that you, too, are partners with us in building God's kingdom in Kosovo!

God has worked in wonderful ways through English classes this year. We continue to have many students taking these classes. These classes have provided many opportunities to have meaningful conversations. We were able to have Christmas and Easter parties this year and were able to share a little about our faith with the students. Students in our adult class have been particularly interested in issues of faith. Please pray for these students, that God will continue to work in their lives and that their hearts will be open to Him.

Gil continues to stay busy coordinating Theological Education for the district. It has been wonderful to be a part of seeing students mature in their faith and embrace the call that God has laid upon their hearts. These coming months promise to be full for Gil, as he is teaching the Pentateuch in Romania, as well as Spiritual Formation and Introduction to Old Testament on our district. Sarah is also teaching Pastoral Care and Counseling this fall.

God continues to use the Greenhouse Project to move families toward self-sustainability, as well as to provide opportunities to share God's love in a tangible way with those in need. Already this year, we've been able to construct 2 greenhouses and hope to construct 5 more before the end of the summer. This project is beautiful because it not only helps families provide for themselves, but also helps families provide for others in need in their communities. We've had wonderful conversations about Jesus' love with these families and are praying that God will work in their hearts and that they will start to follow Him.

God continues to work through children's ministries, both at the local churches and in the community. Recently one of our believers, along with our support, started working with local Roma families after we realized that the kids were not enrolled in school. She not only meets with them daily to help them with reading and writing; she also has advocated for them in the schools and is working with the families to help them prepare their kids for school daily. It has been amazing to see God work through this local believer to make a significant impact in the lives of families who are living in desperate poverty.

And, as always, we are grateful for times of fellowship that we have daily with our friends in the community. God works in amazing ways as we take a few moments to share a cup of coffee with these friends. Please pray that God will give us the right words to say at the right times, and that we would always point to Jesus.

Our kids continue to do well. Megan has finished her freshman year at Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville, TN and is working this summer in Connecticut while she stays with her grandparents. Malachi has finished second grade, both in homeschooling and in Kosovar public school. He loves spending time with his friends, reading, playing games and building legos. Aria is now 1 1/2 years old and is running around chasing everything. She is a real joy, full of smiles and laughter.

As Specialized Assignment missionaries with the Church of the Nazarene, we continue to raise almost all of our own financial support. We are so grateful for your love, prayers, and financial support of our ministry in Kosovo. If you'd like to give, please go to www.thibaultsinkosovo.wordpress.com and click on "Support the Thibaults" for information about how to give. Thank you for your faithfulness and generosity. Thank you, as well, for your faithful prayers for us. We are so grateful!
